A kids' club programme on the Global Goals, running within two weeks

Eco Heroes gives children picture books, short mission videos, an adventure game, trivia and ready-made activities on the UN's 17 Global Goals, from age 6 and in 13 languages. This page says what your guests and your team get today, including the organisation report and certificates with your hotel's name, and how we set it up.

WHAT YOUR GUESTS AND YOUR TEAM GET TODAY

- Kids' club sessions, ready to run — Lesson plans in three age bands (6–10, 11–13, 14–17): a story, a quiz and a small real-world mission. Your coordinators don't have to write any material.
- On the guest's own device — Families open the site in a browser and enter your property's code. No app to install, and no account for the child.
- Books, game and trivia — 17 illustrated books (published in eight languages), the adventure game for ages 9 to 17, trivia with more than 500 questions per language and daily word games.
- A diploma to take home — Children print a diploma after 5 goals and after all 17. It carries the Eco Heroes name and, if you wish, your property's name and logo.
- 13 languages — International guests use it in their own language, Arabic included, right to left.
- Training for your team — A one-hour online session for your kids' club coordinators and the Train the Trainers handbook. For SDG training of hotel staff, there is Eco Heroes Academy.

USUALLY RUNNING WITHIN TWO WEEKS

1. Week 1 · Call — 30 minutes with your kids' club or guest experience lead: ages, languages and the rhythm of your week.
2. Week 1 · Quote and codes — A quote within one business day. Once you confirm, we send your property's code and the link, ready to print or to put in a QR code.
3. Week 2 · Team session — One hour online with your coordinators: how a session runs, and which goals suit which ages.
4. Week 2 · First sessions — Your team starts with the lesson plans and with SDG 1, which is free. After that, support is by e-mail on business days.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT

1. You send the form. It takes about three minutes.
2. Within one business day we reply with a quote, or with times for a 30-minute call if you would rather talk first.
3. You confirm by purchase order or by accepting the quote. We send your codes and a short how-to guide.

WHAT YOU CAN REPORT, AND WHERE IT MAY FIT

Kids' club sessions on the Global Goals: how many, and how many children took part (the organisation report)	ESRS S4, consumers and end-users, described in narrative form; SDG 4.7
Family guests offered the programme, for example codes handed out at check-in	ESRS S4, narrative
Staff trained to run the sessions, and the hours	ESRS S1, training and skills development; GRI 404-1
Sessions with local schools or community groups	ESRS S3, affected communities; GRI 413-1

These are supporting facts, not assured indicators. Agree before you start what counts as taking part, and keep your own records. The organisation report gives your coordinator these totals as a CSV or a PDF. These are activity data, not an impact claim. Using Eco Heroes is not a certification. Eco Heroes is not a sustainability label. Under EU rules (Directive 2024/825), a sustainability label needs a certification scheme with independent checks, so please don't present Eco Heroes to guests as one.
